

Sanwo-Olu compensates property owners affected by proposed NYSC Orientation Camp in Agbowo | 1

Lagos State Governor, Babajide Sanwo-Olu has provided compensation and presented cheques to property owners affected by the proposed NYSC camp in Agbowo.

The property owners are residents of Odo Ayandolu and Ota Ikosi whose properties form a part of the new NYSC camp proposed in Agbowo

"We fulfilled another important commitment to the people of Agbowo by presenting cheques and paying compensation to residents of Odo Ayandolu and Ota Ikosi whose properties are affected by the proposed NYSC Orientation Camp." he said.

He emphasized the importance of catering to the residents whose lives and properties are affected for public facilities, adding that it comes with developing the state.

According to the governor, the affected people's well being is as essential as the development of Lagos. He also put people in the centre of the state's concern, asserting that development has its basis in fairness, responsibility and focus on the people.

"For us, development must be fair, responsible and people-centred," He said.

He reiterated the commitment of the government to develop a Lagos that favours all stakeholders, ensuring growth and progress for all and emphasizing collectivity.

"This is the Lagos we are building, a Lagos where progress is shared and no one is left behind."
